THE present critical state of European affairs will THE present critical state of European affairs will reinder these publications unusually interesting during the year 1851. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news items, crude speculations, and the flying rumors of the daily Journals and the ponderous Tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to hese Periodicals that readers must hook for the only really intelligible and meliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific, and theological character, we arge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

Arrangements are in progress for the receipt of early sheets from the British publishers, by which we shall leable to place all our Reprints is the hands of subscribers about, as suon as they can be lumished with the lovering copies. Although this will involve a very large outlay on our part, we shall continue to fernish the Periodicals at the same low rates as heretofore, viz.
